Introductions

Public Participation Statement: The Bicycle Advisory Committee welcomes and encourages public participation during its meetings under the Visitors agenda item and under any scheduled Public Forum items. Under the Visitors agenda item, the public may raise bicycle-related issues that are not on this agenda for possible Committee review at a subsequent meeting. Under a Public Forum item, presentation and discussion by Committee members takes place and then the Chair may open the item for public input and discussion. Items are time limited at the Chair's discretion.
